Foreword

North, south, east, west—wherever they are—we have recorded the year 1944-45 for the men and women of Central Washington
College now in the service of our country.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The editor of the Hyakem and her staff deserve especial commendation for their work done in the designing and editing of this yearbook under the disadvantage of a greatly curtailed budget caused by a lower enrollment of students. The year 1944-1945 shall go down in history as another calamitous war year during which we have had to curtail many of our usual activities. We have gladly adjusted to the situation, however, in the hopes that we may play our part in the winning of the war.

In this same spirit of patriotism, the Hyakem has been dedicated to former students who are serving in the Armed Forces.

It is gratifying to note the determined spirit of the students in spite of handicaps caused by the war. The basic and fundamental collegiate program has been carried on, and everyone has been constructively busy.

We are pleased to have this record of the life of the college during 1944-45. We shall all appreciate this yearbook and as years pass we shall be glad that we have had a record of the personnel and the events of the year. We are proud of the fact that so many of our former students have played their part in our fight for freedom. On the other hand, it saddens our hearts when we enumerate the fine, promising people who have made the supreme sacrifice.

We are all very hopeful that this may be the last year of the war so that we may turn all of our attention toward the development of manhood, character, and scholarship which is our foremost objective. May we all look to the future with confidence.

ROBERT E. McCONNELL
President

BUSINESS OFFICE

The personnel of the Business office consists of Kenneth Courson, Business Manager; John A. Cleman, Assistant Accountant; Winifred Harrel, Cashier; Marguerite Hansen, Bookkeeper; and Ruth Harris, Clerk.

The students become acquainted with this office early in the year when they come in to pay their tuition and their bills. Later they learn that in this office the various expenditures to maintain the College are budgeted, supplies are purchased, bills are paid, the pay roll for the personnel of the college is handled, and accounts are maintained.

Mr. Barto, Mrs. Johnson
Dr. Samuelson, Mrs. Jones

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

The principal functions of the Registrar's Office are to set up class and room schedules, maintain a student record accounting system, and assist students in matters pertaining to registration procedures and requirements.

PERSONNEL AND PLACEMENT

Every individual who enters college is anxious to make the most of his opportunities while in college and to get himself ready for some kind of useful employment after college. That's why colleges customarily have personnel and placement departments—to help students in their adjustments to college and to assist in their preparation for a vocation. In C. W. C. E.—where the vocational goal is usually teaching—personnel functions start with the freshman student entering college and continue through to the placement of that student in a teaching position.

Mrs. Hitchcock
Mrs. Shumaker

DEAN OF WOMEN

The main objective of the Dean of Women's office is the guidance and counselling of women students. The routine responsibilities of the office include the campus social program, the college calendar, off-campus employment, supervision of loan funds, and advisory work for the Associated Women Students.

DIRECTOR OF DORMITORIES

Supervising food production, buying, menu planning, and overseeing the maintenance of the dormitories are the more important responsibilities of the director of dormitories.

Mr. Muzzall, Miss Vidulich

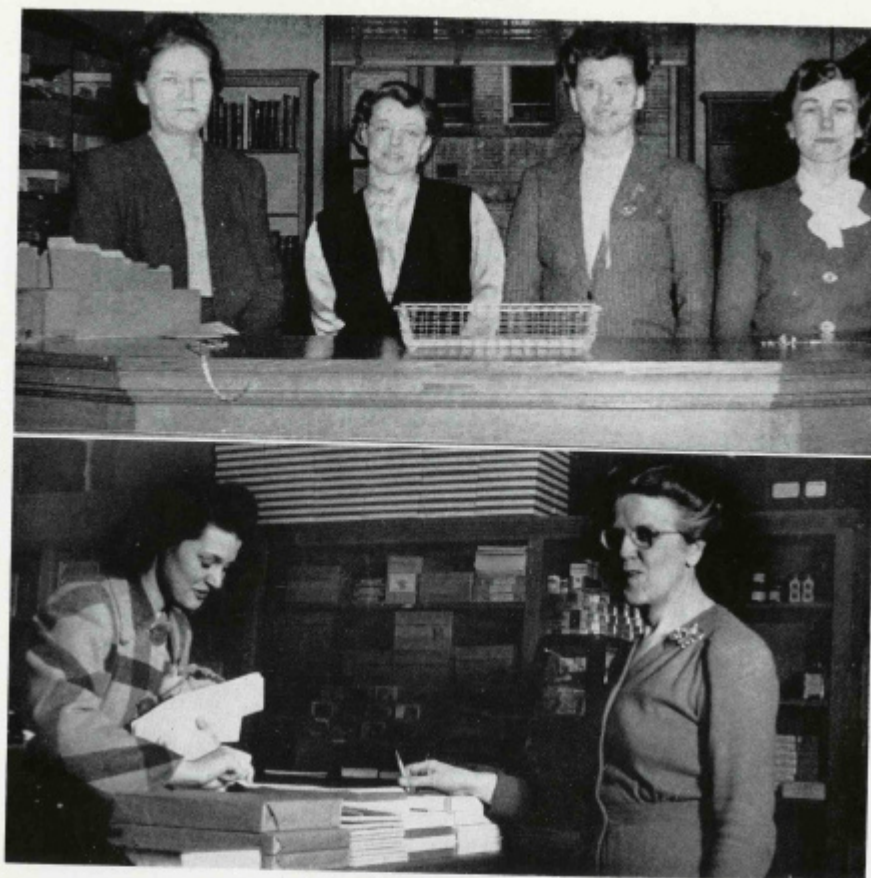

Mr. Rogel, Miss Gibbs

OFFICE OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Two broad functions are assigned to the office of instruction. The Director of Instruction is responsible for the maintenance of standards of instruction and the publication of college bulletins and catalogs. In addition he also serves as Veterans' Adviser for the college.

OFFICE OF VISUAL EDUCATION

With the increased emphasis that is being given to the use of audio-visual aids in education, the services of the department of Visual Education have expanded greatly during the past year. More attention is being given to the training of teachers in the use of audio-visual aids, through extension classes, conferences, summer school work and pre-service training in college classes.

COLLEGE LIBRARY

The primary aim of the library is to make its services contribute as effectively as possible to the education program of the College. It provides the technical and specialized books which keep the faculty members abreast of their teaching fields, and secures for their use the research materials needed by individual professors.

COLLEGE BOOKSTORE

The Bookstore is one of the youngest children of the College. Like all other children of this age the Bookstore has its growing pains, especially this year when materials are difficult to secure. As a project, the Bookstore is helping students build good libraries of inexpensive books and children's books.

EDUCATION AND PSYCHOLOGY

In a teachers' college an important part of the education of every student is his strictly professional preparation—courses in teaching methods, philosophy, practice teaching, and educational psychology. At CWC every student preparing to teach takes a total of thirty-seven hours observing good teaching and teaching under expert supervision.

COLLEGE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

In an atmosphere of modern and beautiful surroundings, efficient advisers of our staff endeavor and succeed in the education of the many prospective teachers who come to our College. Through observations and discussions with their room supervisors, as well as actual teaching experience, these students have every phase of child development introduced to them.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi is a national honor society in education, whose purpose is to encourage high professional, intellectual, and personal standards and to recognize outstanding contributions to education.

ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

The Meisner Branch of ACE strives to provide, through its organization, opportunities for educational leadership and professional stimulation. College faculty members spoke on various topics which aided the girls in gaining new ideas for their teaching.

Although greatly curtailed by the war, many of the traditional activities of Homecoming were carried out. Registration, visiting of the personnel offices and the College Elementary School, a faculty-student baseball game, the Welcoming Tea, Stunt Night, and the Homecoming Dance were highlights. Frances Hewitt, general chairman, was ably assisted by Elsie Solberg, Elaine Millard, Cornelia Anderson, Harriet Douma, Betty Bergren, Irene Olson, Phyllis Sparling and Patricia Anderson.

Dorothy Johnston was crowned queen with attending princesses Rosellen Lockwood and Beverly Dickson.

The Stunt Night prizes went to the Freshman Class, first; Sue Lombard Hall, second; and Sigma Mu, third.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Women's Athletic Association started the year by offering a get-acquainted evening of sports and games for all of the new girls and closed with a formal banquet for the old and new members of WAA and Dance club.

Something to suit every member was on this year's calendar of events: the athletic-minded demonstrated their skill at volleyball, basketball, badminton, softball, and tennis turnouts; the socially-inclined displayed their graces at the initiation fireside, dance club festival, and play night; those who love to roam out yonder trekked with WAA up to Taneum on the annual over-night camping trip.

Although the girls attain skill and accuracy in sports, these are not particularly stressed. Girls are encouraged to play for enjoyment and recreation.

P. E. Majors and Minors is exactly what the name implies, consisting of all majors and minors in the field of Physical Education on the campus. The club has the purpose of acquainting members with the different aspects of their chosen field, and of stimulating enthusiasm and interest.

INFIRMARY

Hospitalization for illnesses with the services of a physician and two new graduate nurses are offered at the College Infirmary. During the year an immunization program went into effect and tuberculosis X rays were given to students and faculty.

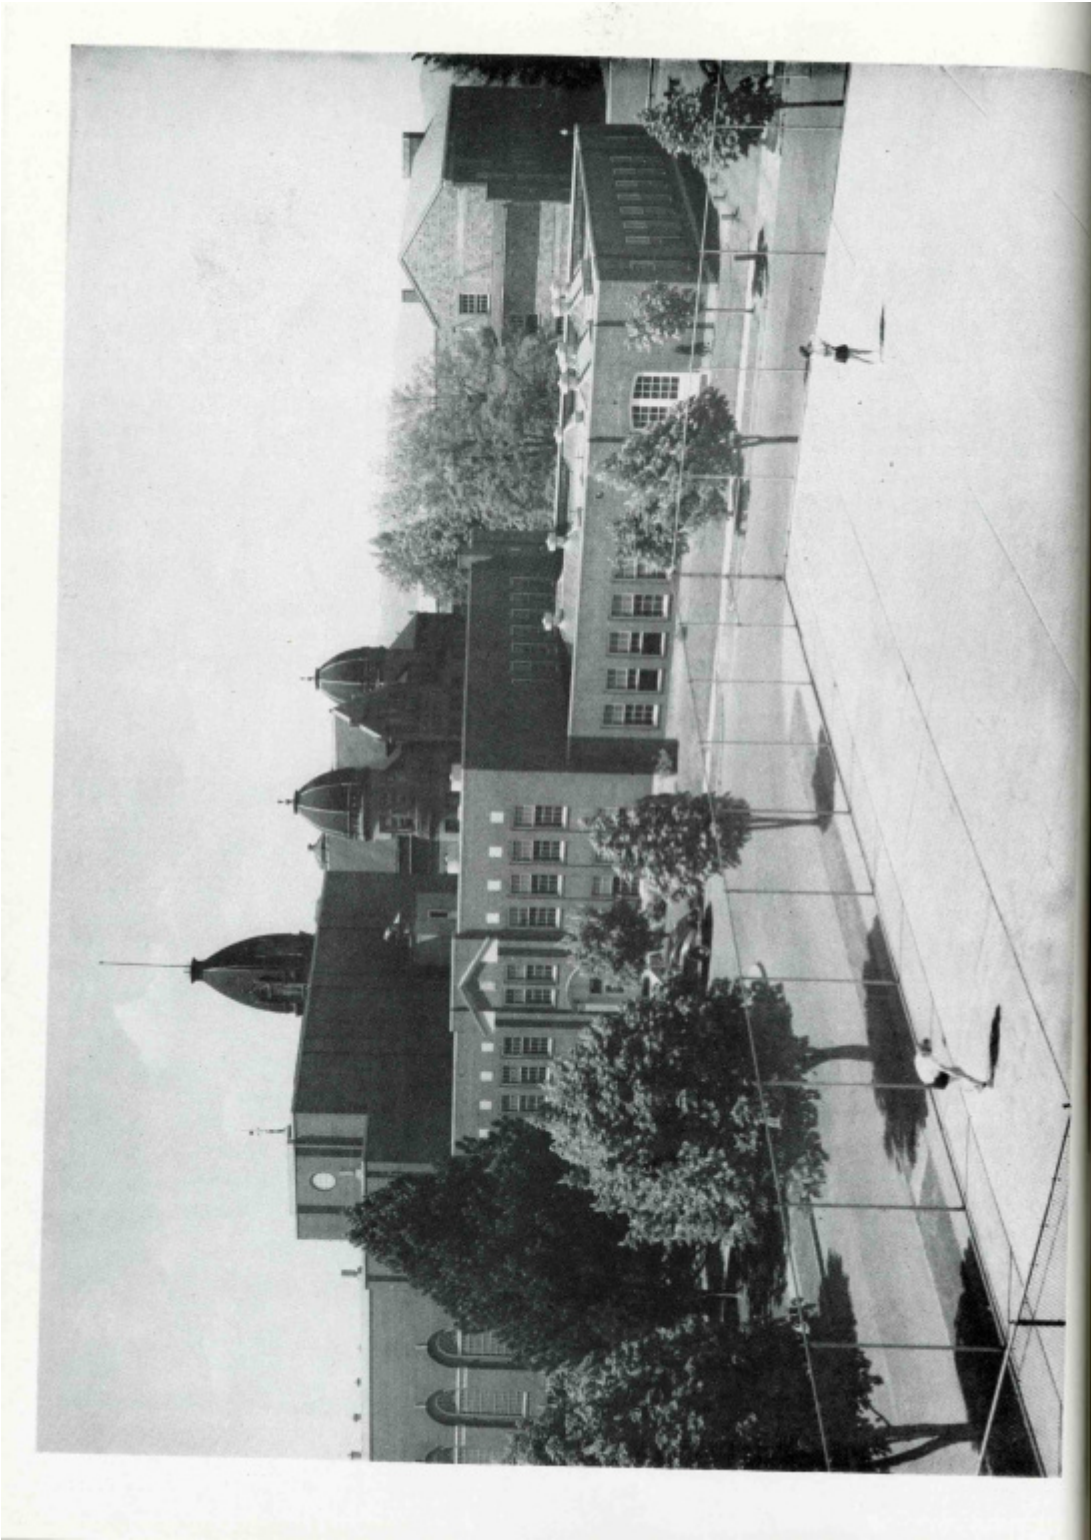

DANCE CLUB

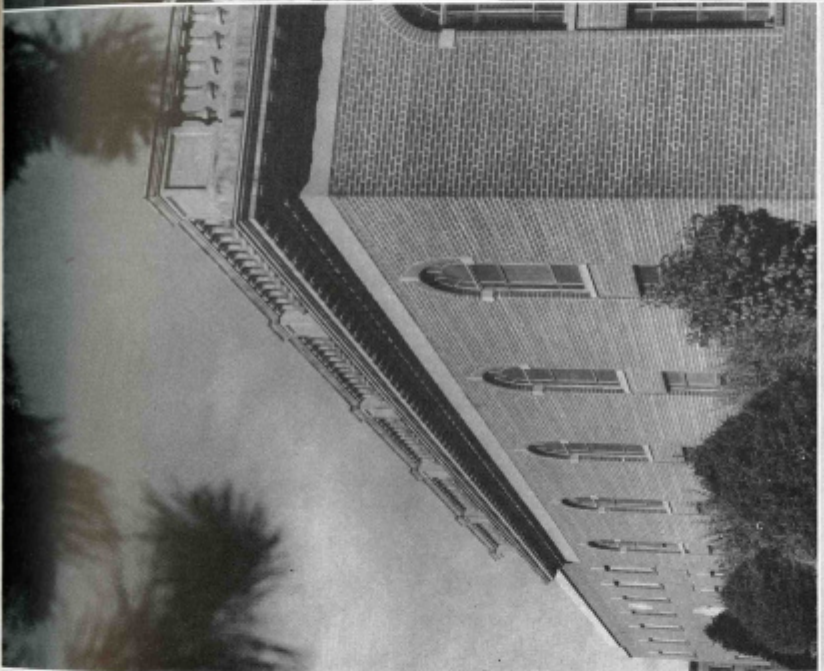

With a membership of over twenty members, Dance club had a very successful year. Miss Lois Ensign acted as adviser and Lois Rathvon and Jeanne Johnson as president and secretary, respectively. The Christmas Concert and the Spring Dance Festival were well received by enthusiastic audiences. The club meets regularly twice a week to practice everything from the fundamental to the more complicated steps of modern dance.

SOCIAL STUDIES

To supplement the loss of five faculty members to military and other governmental services and to make possible the continuance of a full and varied social studies program during this war period, two new members were added to the staff: Dr. Samuel Mohler in January, 1943, and Dr. Elaine Forsyth during the current year.

Majors and minors are offered in four fields: commercial education, geography, history, and social science. Two clubs are sponsored, the Herodotean for history students and the Whitbeck for those interested in geography, both of which meet each month in social and professional activities.

HERODOTEANS

President	Harriet Douma
Vice-president	Anne Iverson
Secretary	Lee Johnson
Treasurer	Irene Olson
Adviser	Dr. Mohler

The Herodoteans, the oldest club on the campus, is a history honorary, organized under the late Professor Fish. Reports were given by Lee Johnson on one of the Carnegie Endowment Books for International Peace, and by Dr. Forsyth, an honorary member. The club also took part in a Wednesday evening Cultural Hour on the subject of world affairs.

WHITBECK CLUB

Co-Presidents	Ruth Ellingsberg Irene Olson
Adviser	Dr. Reginald Shaw

Students who are majors or minors in geography or especially interested in the field of geography are invited to join Whitbeck. During the Fall quarter Dr. and Mrs. Shaw gave a Christmas dinner for the members. The remainder of the meetings were devoted to talks or movies presented by people who have traveled and have interesting geographical information to give to the club.

LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

This year the Division of Languages and Literature has devoted its entire time and energy to the training of civilian students and is again on approximately a normal schedule. The full program of courses in English has been offered. There has been some curtailment of the offerings in Drama, since Mr. Lembke has been on leave of absence. An increased interest in Spanish has been evidenced in the increased enrollment in these classes.

OFF-CAMPUS WOMEN'S CLUB

The Off-Campus Women began their activities in the Fall quarter by editing and distributing Who's Who at CWCE, the faculty-student directory. The traditional carnival held during Winter quarter was an outstanding social event and was well attended by faculty and students. During Spring quarter the annual banquet was held. The club was fortunate in having Dr. Elaine Forsyth as adviser.

Residence Organizations

KAMOLA HALL

Kamola Hall was returned to the girls this year and was the home of one hundred thirty of them each quarter. Activities for the year began with Freshman Initiation, which enabled all of the girls to become better acquainted. This was followed by the Homecoming Tea, the Thanksgiving party, and the Christmas social, all of which were termed successes. Open House was the highlight of Winter quarter. During Spring quarter there was a joint party with the girls of Sue Lombard and a tea in honor of the graduates. Courtesy chairmen were Aini Julin, Betty Bergren, and Shirley Merritt. Jane Litven acted as reporter for the Crier.

SUE LOMBARD HALL

The traditional Freshman initiation stunts, annual Homecoming and the Christmas party, Open House and a Valentine party—these were some of the social events enjoyed by the "Sue" girls. During the course of the entire year, besides entertainment and social functions, the hall purchased war bonds to add to the Sue Lombard loan fund and sold defense stamps every week.

The Associated Women Students is an organization including as its members all the women students on the campus. Like similar organizations in other colleges and universities, its chief purpose is to further the interests of women students, to promote cooperation and loyalty among them, and to provide a means for the expression of their opinions.

The traditional functions of the Associated Women Students are the Orientation Tea honoring Freshmen and their parents, the Welcoming Tea held each fall to welcome new faculty members and students, the Christmas Tea, the Snow Ball Formal, and the Mother's Day Celebration. In addition to these activities, mixers and assemblies are held at frequent intervals.

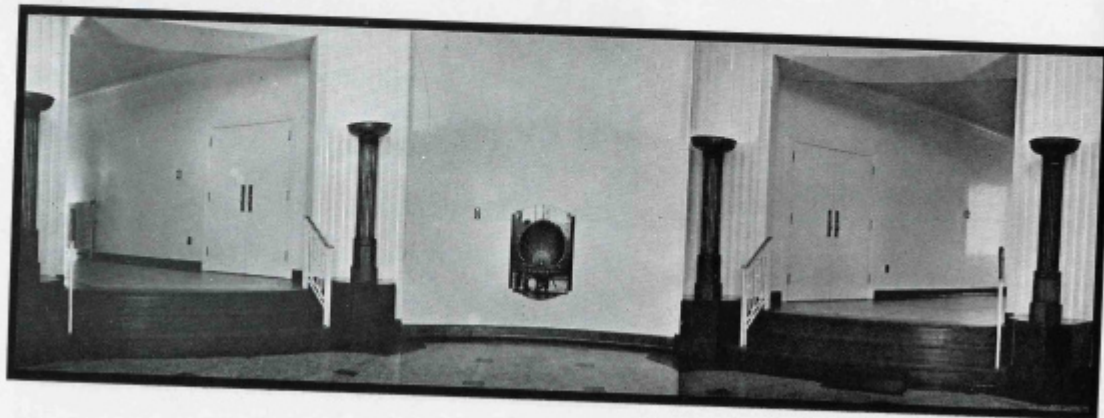

This year A. W. S. has been very active in sponsoring the furnishing of a kitchen with complete equipment for teas and large social gatherings. The kitchen is also being enjoyed by students for small parties and snacks.

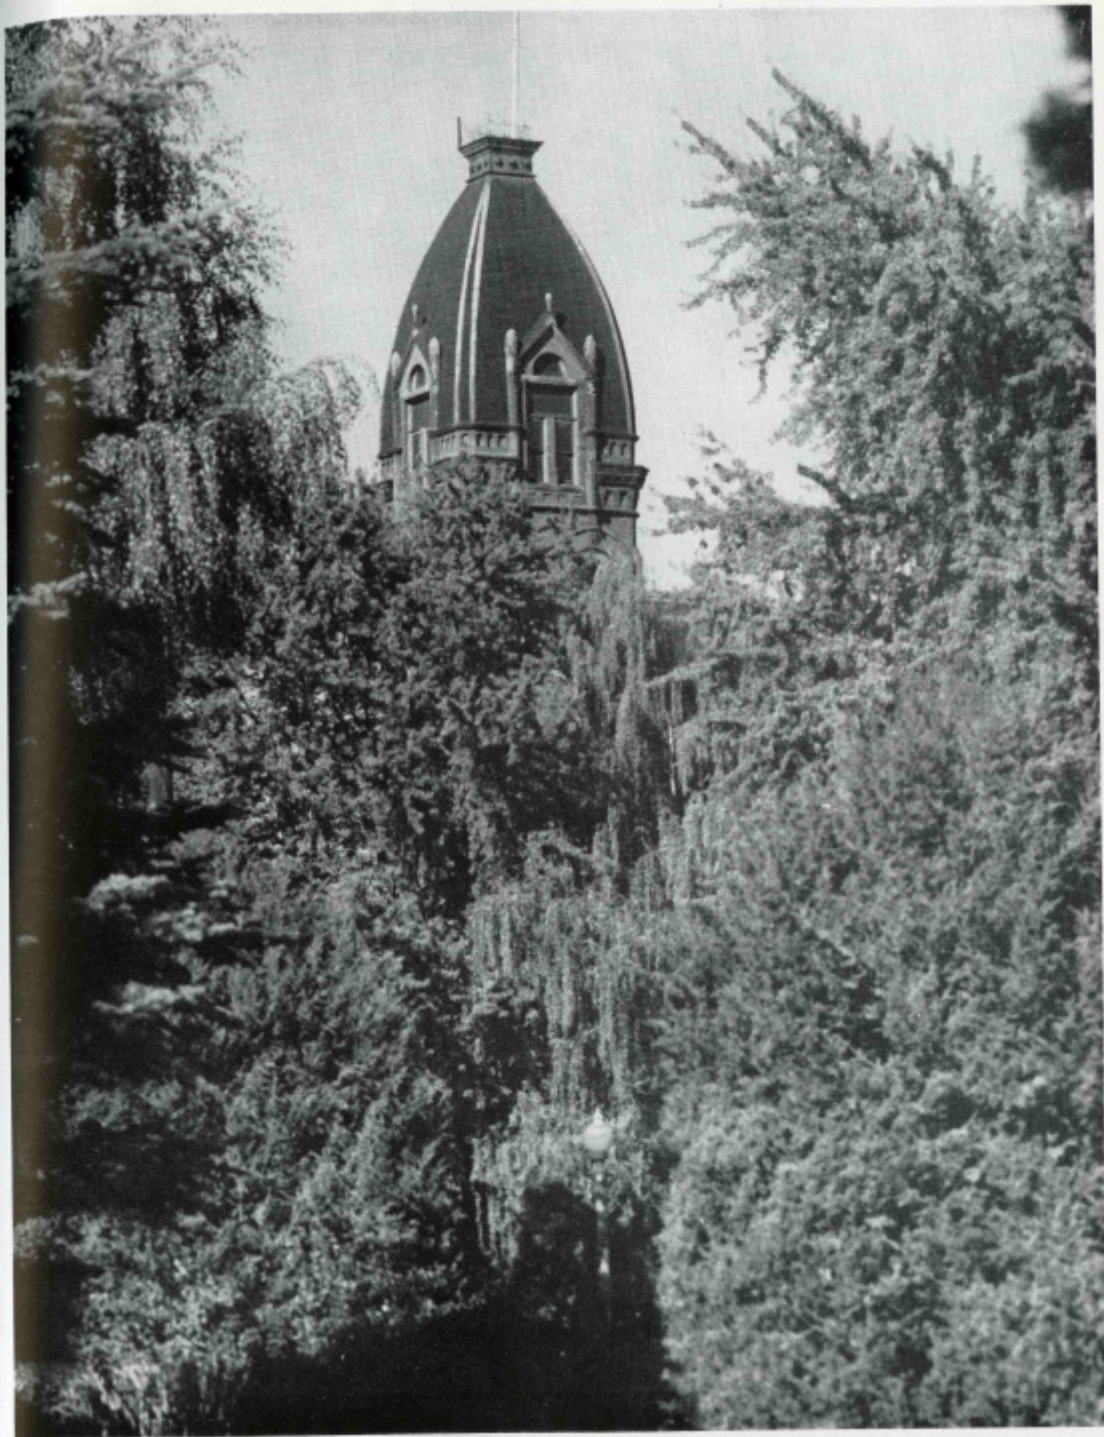

A student loan fund was established this year by A. W. S. to help girls needing small loans.

To the Class of 1945

In September, 1941, the future class of '45 was welcomed by an AWS tea, Iyoptian firesides, and the usual Frosh initiation . . . Soon it was time for Homecoming with the bonfire, signs, and stunts. Margie White of Wapato was queen. The 1941 Homecoming game was opened with the dedication of Tomlinson Field. In the closing minutes of the final quarter, CWC lost a hard-fought game to Cheney, 7-0. However, the Wildcats were the highest scoring basketball team in the Winco league and in the entire history of the school's participation in basketball . . . "Family Portrait" by the Drama department and "Elijah" by the Music department were presentations that will long be remembered . . . There were the Snow Ball, Hard Times Party, and the Colonial Ball with Barbara Williams (Carson) as queen . . . The year was ended by the freshmen giving a picnic in honor of the seniors.

The freshmen had just been initiated in the fall of 1942 when school was dismissed for a week so the students could assist in harvesting apples in various regions of the state. A fitting culminating event was the "Apple Knockers Ball" . . . Our '42 Wildcats, under Phil Sarboe's coaching, won CWC's first Winco football crown, while Coach Nicholson's Cats placed second in the Winco basketball league. Wiseman, Spithill, Harney, Carmody, Hubbard, and Lynn are only a few names to receive mention for their outstanding athletic achievements . . . Evelyn Conant reigned as Homecoming Queen and Verna Lindell was crowned queen of the Colonial Ball. Shirley Dickson became First Woman of the campus by being appointed SGA President. Everyone was made aware of SGA and the Honor Council and all that former SGA Prexy, Roy Wahle had meant them to be . . . Kamola girls picked up their suitcases and moved to Munson so as to make room for the four hundred AAF aviation students in Kamola Hall.

During 1943-44 khaki uniforms were prevalent at all of the many social functions—Saturday night dances, Barn Dance, Cupid's Informal, Colonial Ball and the Snowball. The cadets proved to be very talented in presenting Variety Shows and Flight Dances . . . AWS, assisted by the Home Economics club, presented a style show in which seventy college girls modeled clothes suitable for college . . . The many lovely teas and mixers for the girls were carried on in traditional manner under AWS president, Frances Acers Taylor and her council . . . Our college faculty presented the play "Spring Again" with Miss Michaelsen and Mr. Howell playing the leading roles.

Nineteen forty-four and forty-five was strictly a war-time school year for CWC co-eds. The Army training program was dissolved and the girls once more reigned in Kamola Hall . . . Homecoming was carried out in its traditional manner with Dorothy Johnston as queen and the Freshman class winning the Stunt Night competition . . . "Rapid Robert" Lynn broke more records on the track and Barbara Howard became the second woman to be president of SGA . . . A Cultural Hour with various faculty members speaking was substituted for the Wednesday night dances . . . Roller skating, splash and dancing parties, picnics and Tuesday night movies were enjoyed by students and faculty. The girls even challenged the faculty in softball and volleyball . . . Then Graduation—with teaching careers ahead of many, while others chose matrimonial and various professional careers.

This department on the Central Washington campus has come through the war period with the same high enrollment and morale that characterize the institution as a whole. Our future is particularly bright. Plans for a modern building to house the whole department have been completed. Not only will new and adequate facilities be provided for the great expansion which is to be expected in all branches of science, but the building itself will be an attractive addition to the campus.

The yearly program of the council has added several new ventures as well as helping continue the traditional activities of the Freshman Orientation Program, Homecoming, Open House, inter-class competitive assemblies, maintenance of the record collection in and the upkeep of the student lounge, and the indoctrination period for new student officers working with the Student Welfare Committee. New this year are the bulletin boards hanging in the Arts and Science and Classroom buildings and the "Cultural Evening Programs" every Wednesday.

STUDENT-FACULTY WELFARE

The committee has two functions (1) To advise the social deans, the Honor Council, and the executive board of the Student Government Association when advice is requested or deemed proper to give voluntarily; (2) to act upon disciplinary cases referred to it by the social deans or by the Honor Council.

HONOR COUNCIL

One of the most important bodies of the SGA is that of the Honor Council, which gives students the responsibility of dealing with all but two infractions of the Honor System by any students. The essential meaning of the Honor Principle is that each student is responsible for his own conduct at all times while he is a student in this college. It is the purpose of the Honor Council to deal with any infractions that may occur, and to provide appropriate disciplinary action for each individual case.

HYAKEM STAFF

Ellensburg, Washington,
June 1, 1945.

To the Students of Central Washington College:

Your staff had plans for a book comparable to some of the books previously published. We were as enthusiastic as you to have padded covers, pages of pictures and color. Our plans were made; our aims were high. But many factors have altered our plans. Wartime conditions restrict the use of padding in covers, the use of flash bulbs and film, and make it necessary to use light-weight paper. The main factor has been that our enrollment is but a fraction of prewar years. As the Hyakem is self-supporting, we must depend entirely on ads and annual sales; therefore our budget has been reduced.

With your co-operation, we have done our utmost to give you this record of your 1944-45 year at CWC.

The Hyakem Staff.

CAMPUS CRIER

A college newspaper is the one mouthpiece of a campus which can draw together, for the benefit of all, different opinions and ideas floating around; it is one way the outside public forms an opinion about the school; it should be a publication on which the reporters are proud to say they work and which its readers are proud to claim as one of their spokesmen.

Those who worked on the paper this year were Lois Bell, editor; Frances Spada, news editor; Mildred Kukulan, Beverly Lindquist, Patricia Colwell, feature editors; Elna Holt, Betty Jean Body, sports editors; Beverly McDonald, Barbara Woods, music editors. Arvilla Brown was business manager, and Dr. Catharine Bullard faculty adviser. Reporters were June Back, Joyce Binkley, Beverly Cox, Sally Gould, Charlotte Hoffman, Lois Hornibrook, Dorna Kain, Helen Lange, Betty Loftus, Veronica Nusko, Dorothy Radd, Dorothy Rigg, Dorothy Sheehan, Dorothy Swope, Barbara Wilkinson, Phyllis Anderson, and Don Stevens. Betty Barlow headed the art staff with the assistance of Connie and Esther King. The desk staff was composed of Beulah Hatfield, Evelyn Johnson, Peaches Wagner, and Evelyn Plumlee.

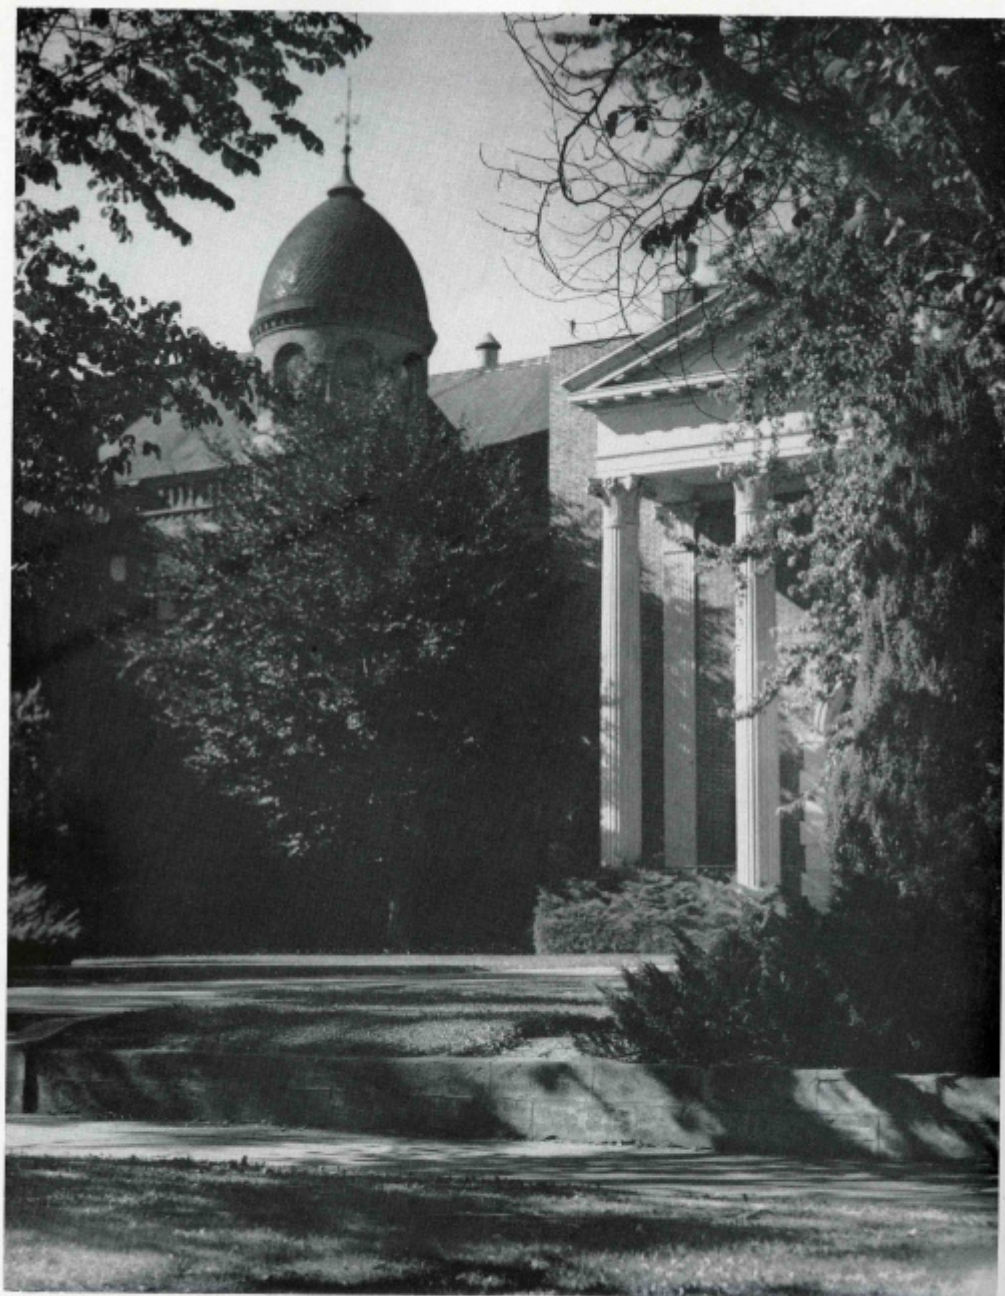

Much credit for helping get out the paper goes to Mr. Nelson Hall, typesetter, and Mr. Beck Hubbel, publisher of the Ellensburg Capital.
